The Statesman and Mr. McBride.

We sincerely deprecate the necessity forced upon us by the Salem Statesman of again alluding to the failure of Oregon to be represented in the halls of national legislation upon the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law. The subject per se we had deemed exhausted, but find it necessary to call attention to it once more, and we hope for the last time. Our statement that the voice of Oregon was not heard, pro or con in the disposition of this "important question" is sustained by the Congressional Globe of June 14th, containing the debate and vote on the repeal, in the proceedings of June 13th, page 2,920. As we understand the English language, a question is disposed of when a conclusive vote is had, until the vote is not reconsidered. The Statesman of the 7th has the following:

We hope the quotation which we now give will convince the Oregonian that its informant was not well posted. In the official proceedings of Congress of June 18th, as published in the Congressional Globe, will be found the following:

Mr. DEMING asked and obtained unanimous consent to have his vote recorded on the passage of the bill repealing the Fugitive Slave Laws. He voted "ay."
Mr. JOHNSON, of Pennsylvania, asked and obtained a like privilege. He voted "no."
Mr. McBRIDE asked and obtained a like privilege. He voted "ay."
Mr. ROLLINS, of New Hampshire, asked and obtained a like privilege. He voted "ay" on the Senate resolution to amend the Constitution.
Mr. RANDALL, of Pennsylvania, asked and obtained a like privilege. He voted "no."

We have been able to find the Congressional Globe of the 18th containing a part of the proceedings of the 18th, but no later dates have come to hand so far as we can learn. We are willing, however, for the sake of "peace in the family," to concede that the statement is correct as published in the Statesman. On Saturday, the 10th, however, that paper introduces some new matter, to which we must allude. It says:

Our quotation from the Globe, proving how Mr. McBride voted, is referred to as "somebody asserting that Mr. McBride did vote," &c. Does the Oregonian not know that the Globe contains the [illegible] there not in that sentence an evident design to mislead the readers of that paper? It is asked again "why Mr. McBride was absent." Here, again, if the fault-finder had been seeking truth as earnestly as he was seeking falsehood, he would have learned that our Representative was necessarily absent from his seat that day as one of the Committee of Visitors to West Point Academy, and that he had his name recorded in favor of the bill at the first opportunity after his return, which we believe was the day succeeding the passage of the bill—and not "several days," as insinuated by the editor of the Oregonian. Must we publish the entire proceedings of the last session of Congress, and the President's appointments, simply to please a grumbling, sore-headed sheet that never sees, hears, or appreciates anything outside of its own little back-woods corner of the world?

We are glad to know that some explanation of the absence of Mr. McBride from the House at the particular time has been elicited. Was the whole "voice of Oregon" at West Point? We plead ignorance of many of the prominent historical facts of national legislation, because we have no one at our elbow to remind us of them, and watching public servants isn't our forte. As a journalist, we have to do with general principles, and depend upon current history—when it comes to hand—to keep us posted as to details. Assuming the Statesman to be correct, and that Mr. McBride did record his vote in favor of the repeal on Saturday, the 18th, we must also assume that the Congressional Globe is correct when it reports the bill as passing on Monday the 13th. We also find in the Globe that Mr. McBride was in his place on the 17th and voted. We have not said he "had his name recorded in favor of the bill at the first opportunity after his return," but if the Statesman's logic is good, we must confess that Saturday is the succeeding day of Monday. We submit the closing sentence of the Statesman's article, and leave it to the public in view of the foregoing, who is guilty of "willful and malicious perversions of truth."

We believe the Portland paper has placed Mr. McBride before its readers in a false light, and unless it sets the matter right by publishing the facts as shown upon the record, we cannot avoid the conviction that its statements in reference to this matter are willful and malicious perversions of truth.

TUCKER, Sanders and Thompson, the pretended rebel Peace Commissioners, who concocted the peace platform in Canada for the Chicago Convention, are all heavy defaulters to the [illegible] Government. Saunders is behind some $[illegible] as Navy Agent under Buchanan at New York. Tucker defrauded the Government out of about $80,000 through the Liverpool Consulate given him by Buchanan, and Thompson, as Buchanan's Secretary of the Interior, engineered the great Indian Trust fraud of $800,000.

The Virginia Union of September 1st, learns from Mr. Gridley, the famous "Sanitary flour sack man," just arrived from Austin, en route for the Bay, that a telegraph operator from Salt Lake had reached Austin, who stated that the Indians were rising and consolidating their forces on the plains. Gen. Connor sends word for the people to be prepared for a big Indian fight. There seems to be a combination of the big Indian tribes for general slaughter.

FOR LINCOLN AND JOHNSON.—At the close of the military election at Sacramento, on Saturday evening, says the Appeal of the 5th, a vote for President and Vice President was taken, which resulted in the unanimous vote [illegible] for Lincoln and Johnson. [illegible] Navy vote for the [illegible] with a peace platform.

During last week, says the Marysville Journal, Mr. D. D. Gray, of that place [illegible] and broke his arm; a son of Dr. M[illegible] fell from a load of grain and dislocated [illegible] of Mr. Linn was thrown from [illegible] thigh.

RESOURCES.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I cannot now present a full detail of the mineral wealth and resources of the country through which the line will pass, but give you a few items which have come under my own observation between Yreka and Portland, viz: that gold, limestone quarries, quartz veins and coal mines abound in the Siskiyou mountains. The rich discoveries recently made in Oregon, of gold, silver, lead, copper, and quarries, on the Santiam river, and in the coast range of mountains, in connection with the prolific agricultural resources of the State, will, when a cheap, speedy and reliable mode of conveyance facilitates their transportation from the present wilderness to a market, make Oregon the wealthiest State in the Union.

The map and profile I shall commence this week. When completed, I shall be able to furnish a proper report and more accurate detail of the whole survey.

Respectfully submitted,
J. M. GURLEY, C. E.

Portland, Sept. 12th, 1864.

ATLANTA IS TAKEN.—The following pertinent remarks are taken from the S. F. Call:

Atlanta is ours—let not the rebels rejoice! Fort Morgan has fallen—let not the copperheads triumph! Farragut has fleeced the Confederacy of its vain Tennessee, has pent up three John Bull blockade runners, occupied Fort Morgan, added another Page to history, and the list of rebel prisoners. Tell it not in Mobile, publish it not in the streets of Richmond, lest the chivalry pay fifty dollars in Southern shinplasters for a drink of dreadful whiskey, [illegible] their necklaces of Yankee bones. The "key of the Confederacy" is in the hands of Sherman, and with it he will turn back the bolt of the rebel lock and swing open the gates of Dixie. Oh, there is wailing and gnashing of hominy in the backwoods of Georgia, there is extra chewing of the weed in Old Virginia, "tobacco 'ambier'" flows down the corners of Hood's mouth, and a diseased tear trembles in that blind eye of Jeff. Davis. A wail goes up from the McClellan sympathizers with the rebels, for fear that a peace, but not the one or kind they prate about, will come despite them, and spoil their Presidential programme. How it hurt they lament the success of our arms, how the triumphs of our brave troops spoil their appetites for dinner. But it cannot be helped. The great "unterrified" are despondent, for the news is favorable to the Union. There's weeping and wailing in the camps of Vallandigham and Wood, and lamentation in Mozart Hall, for the citadel of Dixie is taken, the copperhead hopes of triumph for the rebels blasted. Atlanta is taken.

A soldier who passed through the late raid south of Richmond says:

"The impression on my mind about the rebellion is that the rebels are now using their last man, last dollar, and last loaf of bread. There is absolutely nothing in reserve. If beaten now they go up suddenly and surely. We could see this everywhere. The last card is now being played, and if lost, all is lost for them. I do hope our people will hold out, no matter what happens to Grant or anybody else. A little perseverance is bound to win the day. All rebels want to end the war now. They prefer subjugation to another year of this terrible war."

PURSUING INDIANS IN THE REESE RIVER COUNTRY.—The Reese River (Austin) Reveille of Aug. 21st says:

The Indians about 70 miles south of here have organized a band under the leadership of Tom—an Indian who was in jail last winter for horse stealing but was released to act as guide to the party who were searching for the late Judge Ralston, last spring—and are stealing stock and committing other depredations near the hot springs. They have already stolen 30 horses. As there is a camp of 400 more Indians in the vicinity, there is little doubt that they are banded together, and will commit still greater depredations unless speedily checked.

SINGULAR EFFECTS OF ALTITUDE.—WASHOE TURTLES.—We see a statement going the rounds of the press to the effect that animals living on the top of high mountains have larger lungs than those dwelling on plains but little above the level of the sea. We believe it, "my boy." Some of our politicians can be heard nine miles when they get to spouting. They are nearly all lungs; brains, conscience, souls and everything have [illegible] belungs.—Territorial Enterprise.

A MORMON BISHOP KILLED.—Bishop John W. Wooley was accidentally killed on August 10th, in Little Cottonwood Canyon, U. T., by a large log, which was rolling down a "slide," striking a pile of loose rock, a scattered stone from which struck him on the neck and face. He was rendered insensible by the blow and soon afterwards died. He joined the Mormons in 1840, and in [illegible] was appointed a Bishop. The Deseret News says of the deceased:

This office (his bishopric) he magnified to the day of his death, being ready at any call promptly and energetic in carrying out the measures of his superiors in the priesthood. He was a man whose mind was richly stored with the good things of the kingdom of our God, brilliant in thought and quick to perceive the revelations and whisperings of the Holy Spirit. He has left a large family to mourn his physical loss.

THE New York Post understands from [illegible] sources that in the anticipation of the capture of Richmond by the Federal [illegible] the rebel authorities have [illegible] the archives of the [illegible], Davis Administration, [illegible] moved to Goldsboro, North Carolina.

The Southern Methodists, says the Salem [illegible], are having a protracted revival at the [illegible] meeting ground on the Coast Fork, about five miles above Eugene. Ex-Gov. Whiteaker attends and [illegible] the [illegible].

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—We have [illegible] from Sherman dated [illegible] the morning of the 9th. [illegible] at Atlanta. The troops are in position and [illegible] and Stoneman are [illegible] and hopes they will make an end of [illegible] did of M[illegible].

Legislative Proceedings.

SALEM, Sept. 12.—Senate was called to order by S. A. Clarke, Secretary [illegible] last session, and was organized by the election of J. H. Mitchell, President; E. F. Henderson, Chief Clerk; A. H. Buckingham, Assistant Clerk; C. P. Crandall, Enrolling Clerk; R. A. Barker, Sergeant-at-Arms; P. H. Hatch, Doorkeeper.

House was called to order by S. F. Chadwick, Chief Clerk at last session, and organized by the election of I. R. Moores, Speaker; Jas. B. Collins, Chief Clerk; John Boon, Assistant Clerk; Arthur W. Dennis and [illegible], Enrolling Clerks; [illegible] Fisher, Sergeant-at-Arms; [illegible] Doorkeeper.

"A HYMN OF [illegible]."—The Grass Valley National, formerly belonging to the political faith of McClellan, thus slightingly speaks of a late production of the once honored officer:

It is [illegible] that the oration delivered by General McClellan recently at West Point, [illegible] been [illegible] empires, Thomas [illegible] and [illegible] enough [illegible] Meagher [illegible].

What says the National about the nomination since McClellan is the Chicago nominee? We should be glad to hear from the editor. Marysville Appeal.

We clip the following items from the Marysville Appeal of the 6th. They were dated the day previous:

In the case of the Central Pacific Railroad Company against the city of San Francisco, the Supreme Court decided to-day that peremptory mandamus must be issued to the Board of Supervisors ordering them to issue city bonds to the Company for $400,000, in accordance with the terms of compromise entered into under the law of the last Legislature.

A street fight between eight or ten Irish Secessionists and a corresponding number of Union citizens of Georgetown occurred at that place yesterday afternoon. It appears that a party of Irish came into town from mining camps and cheered and shouted for the Confederacy, denouncing Unionists and otherwise disturbing the peace, and when expostulated with by Justice Smith they attacked him. Several prominent loyalists attempted to rescue him, when the fight became general, but lasted only a few moments. Clubs were the only weapons used. The Irish were badly damaged, and one is under arrest. The same parties have several times before annoyed and insulted Union people of that place.

A messenger from Goodyear's Bar reports the destruction of the larger portion of that place by fire last night. No particulars as to losses.

THE NEW "HOLY ALLIANCE"—FRANCE AND ENGLAND THE DEFENDERS OF YOUNG EUROPE.—The Paris Pays of July 14th, contains an article referring to the despatches lately published by the London Post. The writer says that the Cabinet of St. Petersburg, Vienna and Berlin made their [illegible]. The interviews which took place at Karlsbad and Kissingen will not prevail against the rights and aspirations of modern Europe. The sovereigns of Russia and Austria are now the only monarchs who persist in separating their own interests from the interests of their people. France and England are in another camp—the camp of the liberties of the new era, and of the rights of the nationalities. Following the same object, they can give one another the hand. France and England, continues the Pays, closely allied, will always be strong enough, without resorting to force, ever being necessary, to protect Young Europe against the dark conspiracies of Old Europe. The frank and sincere alliance of France and England secures the peace of the world, with liberty and victory, for a long series of years. La France contains an article in the same sense.

CALIFORNIA RAISINS.—The Solano (Suisun) Press of 3d September remarks:

Mr. R. Miller, of Pleasant Valley, laid upon our desk, one day during the present week, a sample of raisins made by him from grapes grown upon his place. As an experiment, he will make about 1,000 pounds this season, and, judging from the sample shown us, we are convinced that it will be a perfect success. The Malaga grape is produced in that locality, in great perfection, and the climate is thought to be very favorable for the purposes required by that branch of business.

ANOTHER "LOST PLEIAD."—The capture of Atlanta plucks another star from the Southern Constellation. Georgia is no longer to be numbered as one of the Confederacy. She has been snatched from the grasp of Davis as a brand from the burning. Atlanta is Georgia to all intents and purposes. The "Confederacy" now numbers five States in full possession—no more! We have at length reached "the beginning of the end." The Confederacy is played out.—Troy [illegible]—S. F. Flag.

SUNSTROKE AT SALT LAKE CITY.—The Deseret News of the 24th August says:

Last Friday, while brother Ebenezer Thomas [illegible], of the First Ward, was working in the canyon, he was sunstruck, and expired on Monday. The deceased was in the habit of working bare-headed in the hottest of weather, and having a bald head was in still more danger of sun-stroke.

RUMORS by letter from Matamoras say that the rebels are sending all their cotton over the Mexican boundary as fast as possible, and that the opinion there is that the rebel leaders are preparing to abandon the whole of the trans-Mississippi department. It is understood there that their forces are now reduced to about 25,000, and that the late operations against Banks have lost [illegible].

DOMESTICATED.—Some time ago a mountain quail came to C. H. Pyle's yard in this city, and has since been quite at home with his chickens. The quail travels about the yard and roosts with the chickens, as though he was as big as any. When the old rooster crows, the quail gives an imitation with a whistle.—Union Journal.

THIEF CAUGHT.—A horse was stolen in Yamhill county last week by a [illegible] who disposed of the animal at Corvallis, taking in exchange a pony which he brought to this place and sold on last Tuesday. On Wednesday morning he was arrested at the St. Charles Hotel, but [illegible] escaped.—State Journal.

EMIGRANTS [illegible] of emigrants from California arrived during the past week. They report nearly the whole population of that State [illegible] move.—Corvallis Gazette.

MOTHERS [illegible].—It would be a rash [illegible] to live in, we are sure, [illegible] the [illegible] keeping improvements [illegible] in all our purchases we want the [illegible] with [illegible] that a portion [illegible] What [illegible] want [illegible] the machine [illegible] make their dresses on the machine, and then slowly put on the embroidery by hand [illegible] with Grover & Baker's [illegible] can do both, and with an ease and [illegible] the [illegible].—New York Chronicle.

TESTIMONY

CONCERNING THE

TILTON AND M'FARLAND

SAFES!

A TRIAL TEST!

THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT WE PURCHASED on the THIRD INSTANT, of Mr. Tillman, the Agent in this city of Tilton & McFarland, one of their BEST Safes, with INSIDE STEEL VAULT, and WARRANTED by said Agent to be Fire and BURGLAR PROOF, and for sale. The outside door of said Safe is locked with their Six-tumbler Key-Lock. The door of the steel vault is fastened by their Six-tumbler Key-Lock and a Five-ring Combination Lock. Mr. W. Ensign opened the said Safe by picking the lock on the outside of the door in TEN MINUTES, and the door of the steel vault by making a key from measurements taken from the outside thereof, while said door was closed and locked, and by picking the combination lock (not using tools or violence) in five hours and fifty-seven minutes, being ONE HOUR AND THREE MINUTES WITHIN THE TIME HE WAS LIMITED TO.

The trial was made WITH THE CONSENT OF MR. TILLMAN, who was APPRISED of the conditions thereof beforehand, and who, upon the above result being made known to him, promptly offered to carry out his warrantee, by receiving said safe and taking it off our hands.

I CANNOT, and do not, after witnessing the above operations, CONSIDER SAID LOCKS BURGLAR PROOF.

(Signed) ALEXANDER BOYD,
of BOYD & DAVIS,

San Francisco, August 25, 1864.

A SPRING REMEDY, to purify and cleanse the Blood, leaving it free from all humors and impurities, we assert with [illegible]

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the accumulated corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures.

The Oregon Christian Commission

This Association is Auxiliary to the United States Christian Commission, [illegible] to the bodies of our suffering soldiers, to [illegible] for their minds, and above all [illegible] the Salvation of the soul.

It is both [illegible] the Good Shepherd. It binds up the wounds [illegible] and pays all expenses [illegible] out the needy [illegible] Battle Field, in every Camp [illegible] religion and [illegible].

Ninety-six [illegible] directly from the hands [illegible] of the soldier, leaving only three [illegible]. This small cost [illegible] by the Government [illegible] Companies [illegible] under Delegates.

[illegible] of the United States Christian Commission [illegible].

1. It has [illegible] at present of 10 men [illegible] work in the field [illegible] benefit of expenditures.

2. It has a large [illegible] Merchants, Lawyers, [illegible] work, who are six [illegible] from home, with hearts full [illegible] and power, and returning from the field, to move the hearts of the people.

3. It has stations at [illegible] front and rear, with [illegible] and subsistence [illegible] tribute, and [illegible] free writing-table [illegible] daily religious services [illegible] tures of the [illegible] some camp, post or battery [illegible] services and distribution.

4. Reports of [illegible] work and distributions by delegates, and every month from the sixteen Field Agents to [illegible] at Philadelphia.

5. Teams, wagons, and supplies are provided to enable the Agents and Delegates to move with the armies, when they move, and be on the field in time of battle with their stores. Thus the Station Delegates in the Army at rest, become the minute men for the march and the battle.

6. Diet Kitchens in the hospital [illegible] charge of competent ladies, under the [illegible] to prepare food for the sick and convalescent.

This organized work extends, besides all done for the Navy, into every Military Department. [illegible] all their wounds, or half of them, but all persons are [illegible].

[illegible]

On one battle-field, as reported by the Surgeons, more than [illegible] lives were saved by this Commission alone. Nearly 2,000 were pledged to abstain from intoxicating drinks in one permanent camp. At Camp Convalescent, near Washington, by the Divine blessing, 1,500 became christians and subscribed themselves soldiers of the Lord Jesus.

Intelligence is continually sent to thousands of homes to relieve burdened hearts, and often to gladden with news of returning health and of salvation. But better than this, the soldier [illegible] and in his pain is made glad by news from home, though pages, letters, messages and tokens, as well as by supplies for his wants, and the sympathy and care of warm-hearted attendants. The Rebel wounded and sick receive the same care as the Union soldiers.

A Delegate at Huntsville, Alabama writes:

"The authorities have given us a room, formerly used as a clothing store, having tables running down each side, and plenty of shelves and drawers. One of these tables is our "Soldiers' writing desk," and here, from 8 o'clock till 9, you may see the "Blue-coats" writing letters to loved ones at home. We furnish room, paper, envelopes, pens, ink, and if needful stamps. About fifty letters are mailed daily from our box. On our tables are copies of the last Atlantic, Harper, Eclectic, Continental and Blackwood, and files of 25 varieties of the late papers.

On our shelves are huge piles of Religious Papers, Tracts, Testaments, Bibles and Hymn Books, a portion being in the French, German, Danish and other languages for distribution. In our Drawers are socks and drawers for men in Hospital; little bags, containing needles, thread, etc., called "Housewives," from Sunday School scholars in Ohio; some bottles of currant jelly from a good mother in Massachusetts, etc., etc.

These are our tools [illegible].

As soon as the door opens in the morning in they come. "Please give me a sheet of paper," [illegible]; and soon the table is filled with quiet, earnest writers. Others attack the papers, periodicals and tracts, on the other side, and devour them. Yes, devour them. They don't merely read listlessly along just to kill time; but they appreciate and enjoy the pleasure and privilege of having "something to read" in this far-off land.

Here comes a chaplain from Larkinsville, thirty-four miles away. His regiment has just come in from the front—"was in that movement on Cleveland," and the men are famished for papers—he wants a couple of hundred of various kinds, some tracts, and some soldiers' books. Or a christian soldier from Woodville, 24 miles distant, is here, and would like to take some reading matter to his regiment. They have had nothing for a month, and they are "hungry for it." A soldier wants a few Hymn Books. "Since you were out last Sunday, we are trying to sing a little together, and we can't get along well without books."

Another wants a Bible. He would give anything for a Bible. He has a Testament, but he wants the Whole Book. "Mister, you may think it strange, but I would not sell that Testament for any horse in the army. I have read that testament through eleven times since I came into service; but I would like a Bible."

This Ohio boy asks for some needles and some thread. Good thread can scarcely be procured here, and needles soon become rusty, carried in the pocket, as they must be.

A poor fellow in Hospital is without a change of underclothing, and has been for weeks. He has lost his knapsack, with all he had in it, or his descriptive list, and cannot draw clothing.

These, and numberless other wants, great and small, when brought to us by the men, or their friends, it is the work of the office or store to supply. To-day we have given out at the rooms, 31 testaments, 600 papers, 1,000 pages of tracts, some currant jelly and some butter to post hospital. In places where there are more sick and wounded men than here ten or a hundred times as much hospital stores may in a day be distributed.

For a minister there is no limit to his work, but his strength. He can go out and preach that men should repent, three times in a day, every day in a week, and he will find hearers, earnest, interested hearers.

The men are anxious, eager to listen to the word of truth. More than half the regiments are without Chaplains, and in some instances no religious services have been held in them for a year.

The convalescents in camp gather around the minister, and all down the long row of beds, those who cannot arise turn their wan faces, and drink in the healing word.

If he reads, they bring out from under the pillow the well worn testament and follow him.

On the field the delegate's work begins while the battle rages. Under the direction of the surgeon, he assists in gathering the wounded from the field, even under the guns of the enemy if need be, and at the hospital, assists the surgeons at the amputating-tables, or strips off the bloody garments from the mangled men, washes them, and puts clean clothes upon them, or prepares and gives food or drink to them as the case may be.

When the conflict is over, then comes the work of saving life abroad upon the field, by seeking out and ministering to men in extremity, and also in the hospitals where gathering thousands need timely service or they must die.

This, with receiving messages from the suffering heroes and writing for them to their friends, directing them to the Great Physician, giving Christian burial to the dead, and such religious services as the circumstances will permit, is general work of the delegate on the battle field.

The United States Christian Commission, up to January last, distributed 608,275 copies of the scriptures, 502,560 hymn books, 3,316,250 religious newspapers, and 22,030,420 pages of tracts to the eager soldiers. At Gettysburg alone they gave to famishing men $80,000 worth of goods and cordials, saving multitudes of lives.

This Commission, with others, has done much to aid the Government in reducing the annual per cent. of loss in the army, as the following historical comparisons, made in a late speech of Hon. S. Colfax will show:

"In the Peninsular war, famous in history, the annual loss was computed to be 165 out of every 1,000 soldiers in the field. In the Crimean war, when the allied forces besieged the stronghold of Sebastopol in July, August and September, their annual loss was at the rate of 293 to every 1,000."

In the next three months it reached the annual rate of 511 in a 1000, and in the next three months, it reached the annual rate of 912 of every 1000, and it would soon have annihilated the allied armies.

Then the British people sent forth a body of nurses to organize in the hospitals of Scutari some way of relief. But our armies last year lost less than 100 in 1000 in the service.

These voluntary and working delegates of the Christian Commission with their [illegible] are very efficient life-savers; but they need a constant supply of funds.

"To fill the hands of 300 regular delegates with clothing and comforts will require daily $6,000, or $20 each, making $180,000 per month; to this must be added, for the cost of wagons, and teams, forage for horses and subsistence for men, together with the limited salaries of 16 permanent Agents, $20,000 per month.

Thus $200,000 per month are needed for the vigorous prosecution of the work of the U. S. Christian Commission in all fields."

Citizens of Oregon—we commend this thoroughly economical, and most truly benevolent agency to your patriotic, and Christian devotions.

In the eloquent words of the Sacramento Committee:

"We invite your co-operation [illegible] with us, by these double ministries—to minister to soul and body, to our Army. Make the brave soldier still more brave by giving him Christian sympathy and imbuing him with religious principles. Enter the camp, and save the wayward, from the ruin of [illegible]. Enter the hospital, and pour oil into the wounds alike of body and spirit."

Let the ladies organize associations to aid in this Christian work.

Money sent to our Treasurer will be forwarded immediately to Joseph Patterson, Treasurer U. S. C. Commission, Western Bank, Philadelphia.

GENERAL DEBILITY,
and all Diseases which require a Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous, so well authenticated and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.
The class of Diseases in which the Syrup proves a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.
The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

It is well known that the medicinal effects of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.
In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica.

IODINE WATER.
IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to overestimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM, and to have great control over
SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.
Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 1, 1856, page 16).
PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER
This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC
Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body, is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, the becomes full, strong and florid.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

BELMONT, Wis., Sept. 15, 1864.
* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me.
C. A. FLAUTE.

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July 28, 1862.
* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOUNAL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:
HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET, NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.
DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.
Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.
H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.
THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivaled as a remedy for the permanent cure for the maladies above-mentioned, and also
DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,
And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take this
CONSTITUTION WATER,
Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the
MEDICAL WONDER.
The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect; he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom, of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself and restores it to its normal condition.
IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGURY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.
For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to
CONSTITUTION WATER.
Males or Females,
Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.
